Message from Mrs Fearn:

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had a great first week back together. There are lots of exciting events coming up, look at page 2 for Dates for Your Diary.

On Tuesday 12th November we will be wearing Odd Socks to support Anti Bully Week.

Friday 15th November we will wear our home clothes to school for a £1 suggested donation to the Catholic Children's Society in celebration of 10 years of Plymouth CAST.

To celebrate all children we will also hold our very own St Catherine's Got Talent on Friday. The children are deciding if they would like to be part of the audience or an act.

Best wishes,

P Fearn

St Catherine's Candles on the Hill Candles on the Hill

Once again, we are taking part in the Candles on the Hill on Sunday 24th November to celebrate the Feast Day for St Catherine of Alexandria.

There is a workshop in Strangways Village Hall, from 11am till 3pm if your families would like to come along and join in decorating extra bags.

Odd Socks Day:

Tuesday 12th November. We are supporting Anti Bullying Week by wearing our Odd Socks with pride!

We will continue to encourage positive relationships using our school rules; Be Ready, Be Respectful, Be Safe and our Trauma Informed Schools training.

Special Sponge Cake:

This amazing cake was made by Gracie in Hazel Class. It really is a 'sponge' sponge cake!

Oak Class Washingpool Visit:

This week Oak class enjoyed a visit up to Washingpool Farm hosted by discover farming where they were able to become farmers for a day. The children enjoyed feeding the resident pigs and hens, as well as meeting the beautiful Devon red cows.

The children explored the farm for ingredients to make potato and leek soup, they enjoyed the process of getting the plants from field to table and especially enjoyed chopping the vegetables.

The day rounded off with planting some plants of their own to bring back to school.
