Message from Mrs Fearn:

Dear Parents and Carers,

What a wonderful opportunity to be able to go to Colfox to watch the production of We Will Rock You! Our Year 6 children really enjoyed it and it was a lovely start to our transition to the bigger school.

Our School in a Bag project is going really well. Thank you to the parents for supporting your children and fundraising to help those children in the world who are in need.

Lots of great ideas and lots of enthusiasm here at St Catherine's.

Have a lovely weekend, hopefully the sun will appear!

P Fearn

Book Swap Boxes

Please have a look at home and see if you have any books that your child has grown out of.

Beaminster Museum

Dear families

Beaminster Museum is reopening this Good Friday with lots of activities for children.

As well as updated sheets including trails, increased number of hands-on activities around the museum we also have children's sewing kits for sale in our shop.

A warm welcome awaits, and entry is free (donations are warmly welcomed).

Why not come and discover for yourselves?

School in a Bag

We are raising money this Lent to support this fantastic charity.

School in a Bag supports children in all countries regardless of race, politics or religion.

They work with local partners on the ground thus empowering them within their communities.

Every SchoolBag shipped internationally is numbered and trackable providing complete donor transparency
